identity (n.) – the set of behavioral or personal traits by which an individual is recognizable as a member of a group

This year affected who you will be for the rest of your life. Who influenced you? Did you join Student Council because of your best friend's influence? What made you choose to participate? Did you go to the boys sectional wrestling meet so you could show your school spirit? Why did you choose to be successful? Did you study Physics for two hours so you could earn an A for the nine weeks? What did you do to make you who you are now?

As each year went by we changed. This year, the way we saw the world changed. We watched gas prices rise and waited for the ballots to be counted and recounted in order to determine who would be the next president. We became more adult-like in our views; some of us even voting for the first time. Most of the changes were evident, but some of them happened slowly and over time, like the way we acted and our appearance; we were more mature when we had to deal with the obstacles of our daily lives, and when combined these changes shaped our identity.

CHANGES

Senior Jason Montgomery and junior Daniel Dixon sing a duet in the musical Sugar. Their characters, Joe and Jerry, dress as women and flee their homes in an attempt to avoid being murdered after they have witnessed a murder. The play was held on November 2nd and 4th.

appearance

Our identities as students were constantly changing. Inside school, what we said and what we did was shaped by expectations, but the moment we walked out those doors our thoughts were our own. We all had our own opinions based on the people we hung out with, the clothes we wore, the places we went, and even the shows we watched. Whether getting ready to cheer on the team at the big game, putting on costumes just right on opening night of the play, or looking for the perfect outfit to wear to the dance, we were making a statement about who we really were and proclaiming our true identity.

Leading the way to the Future

School, homework, teachers, and tests. Every student has to deal with these things at some point during the year, and it can be quite stressful. The leadership retreats gave students an opportunity to get away from it all while learning valuable information for the future. Freshmen and sophomore students learned how to manage their time, while junior and senior students learned how to set and reach their goals. One thing both leadership retreats had in common was the opportunity to meet new friends.

Student council advisors and leaders worked very hard to organize the leadership retreats. "Overall, I feel that the leadership retreats went very well. I feel that everyone who went enjoyed themselves and learned a lot," said Vice President Molly Armstrong.

"Those that went were a fantastic group of student leaders. They were enthusiastic, respectful, attentive, and cooperative," said Student Council advisor Beth Wolff.

Overall, the leadership retreats were a success and most students cannot wait until they come around next year.

In your opinion.....

"My favorite activity at the leadership retreat was the risk-taking one because it taught me that you have to take risks to be a good leader."
Freshman Kelli Doerflein

"The activity from the leadership retreat that will benefit me most is the risk-taking activity because I learned how to reach out of my comfort zone."
Sophomore Chrissy Jernstadt

"The activity I will benefit from the most is Qualities of a Leader. It taught me that you don't have to be the smartest, most athletic, or the wealthiest to be a real leader."
Senior Jason Montgomery

"My favorite activity was the goal-setting maps with Mrs. Hawks because it affected my daily planning for the future."
Junior Jonathan Power

A Sweet Taste of Victory... leaves Warriors hungry for more

Spirit days and after school events offer a break from the norm

Despite it being one of the earliest Homecoming weeks around, the week of September 11 was still full of energy both in and out of school.

Tuesday night, senior guys dressed in their best female attire gathered to compete in the annual Homelycoming contest. Those who were lucky enough to get into the crowded Performing Arts Center were treated to an excellent and competitive beauty pageant. At the end of the night, Jonathan Schwarz and Jason Montgomery were announced the winners of Homelycoming 2000. "I loved Homecoming week. I really wanted to be involved in everything that week because I am a senior," said Jason Montgomery.

Survivor was a new addition to the after school activities and took place Wednesday night. It replaced the Powderpuff Football game which had been held in previous years. Over 600 students gathered to watch the competition which would be best compared to the Goofy Games which take place during Winterfest week than the popular reality TV show it parodies.

Wednesday: Safari clothes were worn today to get ready for the Survivor game later that night.

You wore what?

Monday: Students and teachers looked their Sunday best as they participated in dress-up day.

Tuesday: Students wore clothes and hairstyles from elementary days while staff revisited their high school days.

Receiver Tony Dishman signals to the referee before a play to make sure his teammates have lined up correctly. Dishman and his teammates went on to win the game against Terre Haute South with a score of 26 to 16.

Thursday: Colors were designated for each grade to wear to show their class spirit. The class colors were: Seniors -- gold, juniors -- silver, sophomores -- black, and freshmen -- purple.

Friday: Black and gold was worn by all to support the Warriors as they prepared for the game.

Saturday: Semi-formal wear was required at the dance; no jeans were allowed.

A common element found in many of the hall decorations was the use of candy to go along with the theme, sweet taste of victory.

Mother Nature tried to cancel the bonfire with a bit of rain, but let up just enough for the festivities on Thursday. As winner of Mr. Football, Todd Godan left that night with his legs cleanly shaved.

Friday brought Homefest after school and the big game against Terre Haute South. At the end of the night, the Warriors were deemed winners, as they won 26 to 16. Also, Chad Tudor and Joni Willan were announced as Homecoming King and Queen at the football game. "The best thing about being nominated was knowing that I have something to always remember, but the worst thing was knowing that only one could win and all these girls are my friends," said Joni Willan.

To finish a week of excitement, the Homecoming dance was held on Saturday. The Homecoming King and his Queen danced the night away among 800 students who attended the dance to enjoy the sweet taste of victory.

Your Say

A look behind the scenes of Homelycoming with one of the winners

"Jonathan and I were surprised we won. It didn't take us long to get ready, just a few nights. We did, however, have to go shopping for our clothes, so we went to Goodwill. I was nervous performing at Homelycoming. We were scared that our skit we read would not go well with the crowd, but it did. They loved it. I felt really good winning. It was fun performing at Homelycoming and at the bonfire. I am glad I did it and I encourage more people to participate in everything and anything they can."

--Jason Montgomery

You did what?

Monday: Hall decorating took place after school. Students worked well into the night making their ideas come to life.

Tuesday: Homelycoming took place in the PAC. Jonathan Schwarz and Jason Montgomery shared the crown for the year.

Wednesday: The first ever Survivor competition was held where 15 students competed to see who could out survive their competition.

(1) James Skillman and Cheryl Jones take part in Monday's dress-up day. As the week progressed, more students participated and the outfits got crazier. (2) Junior Nate Delay poses in his best elementary school clothing. Delay's outfits were some of the most spirited of the week. (3) Senior William Miles shows his best safari clothing on Wednesday. Safari day was coordinated with the new Survivor game that took place later that night. (4) Junior Ryan Cox shows his class spirit by participating in class color day. Class color day brought out the rivalry between each class. (5) On Friday, Greg Schildmeier helps out Joel Godsey with a ride to class in his best black and gold. Friday was the most spirited day of Homecoming week. (6) Megan Bottoms, Adam Gutzwiller, and Tyler Smith participate in the Survivor contest held Wednesday. The new game was a huge success and had over 600 students attend to watch the 15 competitors. (7) Senior Chad Merideth helps prepare for the hall decorating contest. The senior class won first place in the contest. The Survivor competition was a new addition to Homecoming week. (8) Seniors Jonathan Schwarz and Jason Montgomery show their talent during the annual Homelycoming contest. Their escorts for the night were Jackie Boughton and Kari Glazier.

Thursday: 600 students gathered at the bonfire on the football field where the various winners of the week's contests were announced.

Friday: The football game took place after Homefest. The final score left Warren with a victory of 26 to 16.

Saturday: To end the week, 800 students attended the Homecoming dance which was held in the Commons from 8 to 11:30PM.

At the bonfire, Todd Godan was announced Mr. Football, Mr. Salemi was chosen to snuggle with a snake, and the seniors were announced as winners of the hall decorating contest and the spirit chains.

Are You A SURVIVOR?

Five students volunteered to go a week without one of their favorite things. They were asked to keep track of their experiences over the stressful five days and tell how hard or easy it was to go without those items.

The Islands of Forbidden Treasures

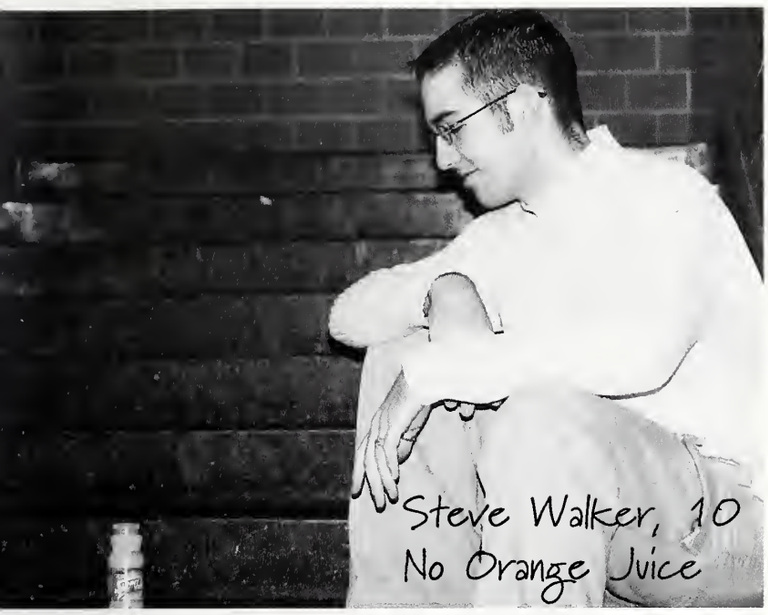
The Island of No Oranges: Steve Walker was left here for a week without orange juice.

Hershey Key: Melanie Jarvis tried to go a week without chocolate.

Caffeine Free Bay: Katie Collins spent a week without any caffeine.

No Remote Control Isle: Matt Quirk went a week without watching any T.V.

Phoneless Cay: Lisha Herzberg was left here for one week without her favorite thing, the phone.



Steve Walker, 10
No Orange Juice

Monday: I would really like some orange juice, but it's not bothering me too much yet.

Tuesday: Right now I'm just trying to keep myself occupied and not think about it.

Wednesday: Instead of orange juice, I find myself drinking a lot of water.

Thursday: I stayed home sick today. I think it's because of my lack of vitamin C.

Friday: I cannot wait until this day is over because I really need my orange juice. I can't even begin to explain my addiction to orange juice.

Monday: Since today is just the first day, I'm not doing so bad. I wish I could eat chocolate chip cookies for lunch though.

Tuesday: I'm getting kind of antsy. There's so much chocolate in my house that is calling my name. I substitute it with a sucker.

Wednesday: I was doing fine without chocolate today, until my sister ate it right in front of me. So I did my homework to keep my mind off it.

Thursday: I'm getting used to this no chocolate idea, but I can't wait to eat some soon. Not much longer now.

Friday: Finally! The last day. I know I can last until the end, but as soon as it's time, I'm going to eat some chocolate chip ice cream.

Melanie Jarvis, 11
No chocolate

Matt Quirk, 12
No Television

Monday: I finished my homework early, and now I'm really bored. I don't think I can possibly do this for an entire week.

Tuesday: This is not cool at all. I don't like to read, so I can't do that, but I can listen to music. Yes!

Wednesday: What's up! Not being able to watch television is very nerve racking. I'm not having fun at all, and I'm missing my favorite show now.

Thursday: Today is not that bad because I have to make fliers for my airshift tomorrow. That will take up some extra time.

Friday: Well, I am glad that I was busy today. I stayed after to do my airshift, and then I went home and went to bed.

One Day At A Time

If you think surviving a week without chocolate is hard, look at what the real survivors had to do.

- A race to see who could start a fire the fastest
- A romp through abandoned buildings looking for survival items
- A race to eat a bug the fastest (the bug was three inches long, and a half inch wide)
- Walking across fire for one of the final challenges
- Drag a treasure chest underwater 150 yards to shore

Warren held it's own survivor contest during homecoming this year. Events included bobbing for bananas in mush and sticking cheese puffs to their whipped cream-covered bodies. Nate Godsey was awarded the ultimate survivor.

Lisha Herzberg, 12
No Telephone

Monday: It has been really hard to not talk on the phone. It seemed like every phone call was for me. My friends had to talk to my mom instead of me.

Tuesday: All my friends called me after school to see how my shadowing job went. I wanted to talk to them, but luckily they understood.

Wednesday: Nobody called me today, but my mom tried to get me to answer the phone when it rang. I bribed my little sister to do it for me.

Thursday: I was gone all night because I had to be at a dinner. This way I didn't have to worry about the phone.

Friday: I did nothing but think about the phone all day. I can not wait until tomorrow, so I can start using the phone again.

Monday: Wow! What a day! I couldn't drink coke with my Pizza!

Tuesday: Just what I need, another glass of water today.

Wednesday: I really want a sprite with my after school snacks.

Thursday: I never thought that not drinking soft drinks could be this hard. Only a few days left, and I'm done.

Friday: It's friday night, and I am eating buttery popcorn with Lemonade instead of coke. Lemonade and popcorn do not mix!

Katie Collins, 9
No soft drinks

WHAT IS ONE THING THAT YOU COULD NOT SURVIVE WITHOUT?

Heather Siebenthal, 12
I could not survive a week without listening to or playing music.

John Hearn, grade 11
I couldn't survive without Mountain Dew. I'm addicted to it.

Matt Knoy, grade 12
There is no way I could go a week without using the restroom.

Krista Wilson, grade 10
Makeup. There is no way I could go a week without it.

Sugar Rush

With little time, the cast and crew of Sugar pull through with a great show

Usually Warren is only graced with one time for cross-dressing during the year, but not this year. When Joe and Jerry, played by Daniel Dixon and Jason Montgomery, mistakenly saw the Valentine Day Massacre, they had no choice but to run from the law, no matter what they had to do. The only option was to join an all-girl band in Florida. There was just one obvious problem: they were both males.

> "When some of us were offstage and had some time to kill, we went back into the studio theatre and played the piano and sang and had fun until we went back on stage."
> Craig Steele, Grade 12

While in the band, Joe took an interest to Sugar, a sweet and beautiful singer played by Nicole Silverman. Joe, dressed as a male millionaire, takes Sugar out on a few dates. Jerry was also having some luck with love; he was being pursued by millionaire Sir Osgood Fielding, played by Jordan Cox

Even though the play had a great plot, it was not an easy road making the show as big of a success as it was. The stage crew had only three weeks to come up with a set, and there were major difficulties finding a technical director for Sugar.

The lack of a technical director did not only affect the stage crew but also the cast. "The worst thing about the play was the long hours. During technical week, we were at school from 6-10 every night," said Nicole Silverman.

Despite all the problems in the way, the cast and crew came together to create yet another successful fall musical.

Lyndsey Bowen

The all-girl band named "Sweet Sue and Her Society Syncopators" that Joe and Jerry join, dance and sing the night away on opening night. The play was held two nights, November 2 and November 4.

April Hancock and Christina Wurster, members of the group " Penniless Bums" dress in drag to fit the part of the poor, male bums. Just like the main characters in the play, the chorus members had to audition to get a role.

Jonathan Schwarz, playing the part of Knuckles, and J. Hagley and Peter Cook, playing the part of hoods, play a card game during their scene. Knuckles and the hoods were part of the gang that persuaded Joe and Jerry to leave town.

Daniel Dixon, Jason Montgomery, and Nicole Silverman share a little drink as they get to know one another. Dixon, Montgomery, and Silverman created a great chemistry that was easy to detect through their interactions on stage.

"Being part of a great cast was the best and most memorable experience from the play. I came to know many wonderful people, and I will miss them dearly next year when I'm in college."
Peter Cook, Grade 12

"The musical was one of the most rewarding things I have ever participated in."
Kristin Fife, Grade 10

"While I was in the train birth with my nightgown on, someone had wasted water so I sat down on it and got my behind wet!"
Adrienne Jenkins, Grade 12

"I think my most memorable experience would be working with Jason Montgomery; he is the best!"
Daniel Dixon, Grade 11

Slay the DRAGONS...

Whether they were dressing up for spirit days, or just cheering on their favorite team at Goofy Games, students were showing school spirit in any way possible. There were activities held each day for students to participate in or just watch from the sidelines. To bring Winterfest week to a close, the Winter Guard performed their contest show, "A New York State Of Mind," during half time at the basketball game on Friday night. During Winterfest week, the students exemplified school spirit and proved themselves to be first class.

Get 'N' Sync

Students were lined up at the doors waiting anxiously to see their classmates compete for the title of Lip Sync champion. The winner of the lip sync contest won one hundred dollars. Freshman John Pond was the winner of lip sync with his solo performance of 'N' Sync. Coming in second place were the Dub C Divas, with their rendition of Destiny's Child. ## Laura Smith, 9

Where did you go?
I went to Sacramento, California.

Did you do anything interesting?
Not really. I did a lot of shopping though.

Who did you go with?
I went by myself, but I visited my family that lives there.

Sophomore Ryan Walke and his friend, senior Adam Paugh, stand on the beach. Walke spent most of his spring break hanging out at the beach.

Ryan Walke, 10

Where did you go?
I went to Panama City, Florida.

Did you do anything interesting?
I went jet-skiing and to a concert.

Who did you go with?
I went with Jennifer Dayton, Adam Paugh, and Natalie Walford.

My Story

"I am involved in many activities in school including: connections, school musicals, readers' theatre, science club, National Honor Society, and the VIP club. On top of this I also work 8-12 hours a week at J.C. Penney's Portrait Studio. Sometimes it can be very hard (managing my time), especially during musicals or show choir season and other busy times during the year. The main thing that keeps me motivated is the support of my family and friends. They're great! Just knowing that they're there is a big comfort. When I get really stressed, I just remember that I'm so involved by my own choice. I have the ability to cut back my load, and I wouldn't be participating in so much if I didn't enjoy the activities."-

Hilite choir members Andrea Good, Michelle Wright, and Lyndsey Bowen practice songs for competition. Members of musical groups often practiced for their competitions for six or more hours a week after school.

You Went Where?

The top four spots for some weekend entertainment.

- Club 2001, J-2, On Cue, and similar underage clubs were the spot to be for great music, dancing, and socializing.
- General Cinema, Lowe's Theatre and Movies 8 featured the year's hottest movies and also made a great place to go for a first date or a night out with friends.
- Whether it was Washington Square, Castleton, or downtown Circle Center, the mall was always a favorite hangout. Where else could you get food, clothes, CDs and more?
- Greatimes, once just a place for children's birthday parties, became an all-night hang out with lock-ins nearly every month.

My Story

"I am involved in connections, student council, project set, fellowship of Christian athletes, ambassadors, school musicals, sunshine committee, and I work 25 hours a week. (It is) very difficult managing time. I write out my schedule in my planner one month ahead of time. Sometimes I have to leave one activity early and get to the other late. (When I get stressed) I look to the future and remind myself of how my activities will benefit me in the long run. A typical busy weekend for me involves: Friday, I get off work at 9:00 P.M. and do homework until 11:00. I go to bed by 12:00 in order to wake up at 4:30 A.M. Saturday, I meet my choir at school at 6:00 and compete all day. We get back around 1:00 A.M. Sunday, I go to church Sunday and then work until 6:00 P.M."--Jackie Boughton, Grade 12

During two weeks in March, select advanced level Japanese students were given the opportunity to host a Japanese exchange student. The once in a lifetime event was full of activities that occurred in and out of school. After school, the students went to typical tourist attractions of Indianapolis including the art musuems, the zoo, and a Pacer game. Time was also spent with home stays where the students were given the opportunity to get to live as Americans do. After their stay was up, the students returned to Japan with several new American friends who were planning on making a trip to Japan.

...what we came here to do is embark on the next chapter in our journey of life.

Congratulations c/o 2001

From 772 feeble freshman in 1997 down to 574 mighty seniors, we have come together to form Warren Central's class of 2001. Through finals, homecomings, and proms we made our journey to Conseco. As today turns into tomorrow we will look back on what we have accomplished and remember who we were. After having gone through elementary, middle, and high school we will look back on our accomplishments and triumphs. We will remember our best friends and our favorite teachers. We will miss recess and snow days. We will move apart, yet we will always remain the graduating class of 2001.

drawn out

While classes may not have been the most fun time of day, the things that happened between the bells affected who we would be one day. Exploring our individual interests, we learned to sing and dance, paint and sculpt, cook a gourmet meal, speak a foreign language, write a persuasive essay, and solve impossible math equations. Some of us traveled the world through books, while others went by the internet. Combining our talents, we could even build a house or fix a car! There was a place for everyone, and finding it wasn't too hard.

Once you were there, you shone, and you seemed like a whole new person.

What's YOUR story? If you wrote a novel about your life, what would it say?

1. At the school dance you are most likely: a) slow dancing in the arms of your love object. b) joking with your friends near the punchbowl; you only came for the food. c) collecting ballots and counting votes for the court at the voting table.

2. A girl trips and falls in the hallway. You: a) rush over to her, take her hand, gaze deeply into her eyes, and dramatically whisper, "Are you okay?" b) laugh and shout, "Have a nice trip! See ya next Fall!" c) offer to help her gather her books.

3. Walking into your third hour class with your best friend you notice that you have a (gorgeous) substitute teacher. You immediately: a) begin to flirt like crazy. Who cares about an age difference? b) encourage your friend to switch names with you and spend the period throwing paper wads. c) offer to help with attendance and point out anyone who is not in their proper seat.

Romance: (mostly A's)
You seek love and companionship.

Satire: (mostly B's)
You seek comedy and attention.

Moral: (mostly C's)
You seek to do the right thing.

Celebrate!

a few foreign holidays celebrated here at Warren Central

Cinco de Mayo is a holiday celebrated by Mexicans and Mexican Americans. Its name is Spanish for "Fifth of May."It commemmorates the victory of a Mexican army over a French army on May 5, 1862 during the Mexican Revolution. The Mexican army won the battle even though the French forces were better armed and three times as large.

Oktoberfest started as a wedding reception in 1810 in Munich; now it is a German holiday that is celebrated all over the world. The celebration begins the first week of September and ends the first week of October. Live bands perform and everyone, young and old, has a good time at this folk festival.

Mardi Gras means "Fat Tuesday." It came to New Orleans through its French heritage in 1699. The celebration is always 47 days before Easter Sunday. It is an all-day celebration of food and fun. The official colors are purple, green, and gold.

Social Studies Takes Students

Mr. Barnes' U.S. History class studied the Japanese-American internment during World War II.

Ms. Hairston's Economics class discussed the monetary problems of modern Russia.

Ms. Glazebrooks' Ethnic Studies class studied Chinese and Chinese-American culture.

Mr. Bush's Economics class discussed the new European currency (The "Euro").

Mr. Salemi's International Relations class represented Mexico at the Model United Nations at the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Smith's Geography class studied "sub-saharan" Africa.

Mrs. Patel's Global Issues class studied Brazil and the Amazon Rainforest.

Mr. Hodges' Geography class did a detail study of Australia.

International Relations (IR) Trial

Who's side did you take? Why?

As the defense we hoped to prove Washington was provoked, diplomacy failed, and because he did not start, nor was he fully in charge of the revolution, the jury should have found him not guilty.

Jonathan Schwarz

I was in the prosecution and George Washington was guilty because his actions were terroristic and he broke his oath to his king by killing British citizens and soldiers.

Ashley Schaefer

Issue:

Is George Washington a Terrorist?

Explanation:

If you asked the British crown this question during the Revolutionary War, the answer would have been yes. The issue the international relations class wrestled with is the difference between George Washington and Yasser Arafat. Washington led and Arafat leads their respective nations in the struggle for independence against, in their view, a colonial power. One man's patriot/founding father is another man's terrorist.

Verdict:

The Jury found George Washington not guilty.

Try this at home: Glupe (Slime) Lab

You will need:
Elmer's glue, Borax, water, 2 styro-foam cups, a set of teaspoons, 2 stirring utensils

1. Measure 3 3/4 teaspoons of water into a styro-foam cup, add approximately 1/4 teaspoon of sodium borate (the Borax), stir solution for 15 seconds. Set aside and allow the undissolved particles to settle while doing the next step.

2. Pour 4 teaspoons of Elmer's glue into the other styro-foam cup. Then pour an equal amount of water on top of the glue. Use a stirring utensil and stir for 30 seconds.

3. Carefully pour the sodium borate solution into the styro-foam cup with the glue and water mixture, leaving behind any undissolved granules. Stir the mixture slowly for 15-20 seconds.

4. Remove as much of the product as possible. Knead it, then let it sit for a few minutes while you clean up your mess.

5. Now, you have made a type of cross-linked polymer that chemists and kids have nicked-named "glupe!"

Mr. Frank Bynum initiated a movement to restore the aquarium in the science hallway. With the aid of grants from the School Improvement Council and other helpful organizations, Mr. Ken Chan was hired to come in and fix up the tanks, bring in some exotic fish, and care for these creatures. "We asked for something eyecatching... something students wouldn't see every day," explained Mr. Bynum. Mr. Chan brought African Chichlids for the freshwater aquarium and colorful and interesting species for the saltwater aquarium. These fish were fed daily by Mr. Dennis Kelly.

Brook O'banion laughs at Jason Montgomery as he tells a joke on the morning news show "Wake Up Warren." Seniors Jason Montgomery and Brook O'Banion were the host and hostess of the show. Some days the two anchors would have the day off, and seniors Marie Hertel and Matt Knoy would host the show.

Senior Daryl Garrett, sports anchor/producer, hosts the sports segment of the morning news show "Wake Up Warren"with enthusiasm. Garrett always gave the Warriors support by saying "Go Warriors" at the end of each sports segment.

Students April Roney and Traci Palmer prepare for a days work at the sewing machines in the textiles/fashion technologies class. In this class students learned about various types of patterns, fabrics, and how to construct clothing. This was also a great class to take in order to improve sewing skills. The construction of at least three garments was required.

These are just samples of what students made in the textiles/fashion technologies class.

Senior Phillip Reed measures a wall, in the buliding trades house, to make sure he had the right measurements for a piece of drywall that would be put there. In the building trades class, students constructed and completed a single-dwelling residential home over a two-year period. Students learned how to use hand tools, power tools, and how to properly handle building materials. A recommended list of tools were obtained from the instructor, but students were encouraged to provide their own tools. The class met for two hours a day and focused on methods used in carpentry, masonry, plumbing, electrical wiring, and other related areas. Students recieved intructions in the laboratory and during on-site activities. Students were involved in all phases of construction including interior and exterior finishing and interior wall, floor, and ceiling finishing. After the house was completed it was sold.

Preparation

The victory so close you could smell it... the last seconds of the competition... the game on the line... and it was all on your shoulders. This was the moment every athlete dreamed of - a chance for glory. Maybe it was the first game or maybe the championship at state. Still, every athlete knew that without his or her teammates there would have been no celebrity moments. It was working through hours and hours of practice, learning the drills, dealing with the injuries and setbacks, and celebrating the small victories together that made that group of people a team.

New Coach Leads Team to Regionals

By: Jennifer Lucas

Many goals were accomplished by our Warrior's football team this season. Starting the year with a new coach, Mr. Wright, many players and fans thought this would be a year to build the team.

Going into sectionals with a 5-4 record, the Warriors self-esteem grew. The team started to play as a whole lead by quarterback Korrie Gillespie and numerous players who displayed their potential. "We have improved so much since the beginning of the season, I think we have a good chance in sectionals this season." Stated Senior, Nick Kerr.

The team accomplished a goal after winning the first round in sectionals against North Central. The season did not end there though. They later went on to beat Lawrence North, Broad Ripple, and Lawrence Central to win the Sectional Championship.

Thank you team...

"For the time and preperation you have put into our football season this fall. I was very proud of our victory over Broad Ripple, along with L.N. and L.C. in Sectionals. You showed great improvement through the season and deserved the Sectional Championship from all your hard work."

Coach Kevin Wright

THE PIRANHAS JOURNEY TO STATE

By: Jason Patel

The piranhas, as the cross country team is known as, have had one of their best seasons in Warrior history with their fifth place finish in State and their top five ranking. The varsity Warriors consisted of seniors Aaron Harding, Josh Lantz, and Jason Smith, juniors Tyrone Green and Shaun Moore, sophomore Brandon Cole, and a seventh runner who changed between seniors Mark Ikeda and Derek Nickleson. The Piranhas placed second in MIC, and won the County Tournament. Winning Sectionals and Regionals, placing third in Semi-State, and recieving a fifth place in State gave the Warriors an unforgettable season.

Thank you team...

"I would like to thank every runner on the team for a great and exciting season. This was one of the most successful seasons in Warren Central history, and I was proud to be a part of it. I would especially like to thank all of the seniors who provided us with great leadership."

Coach Joe Brooks

Pride WITHIN EACH Stride

Heart, courage, and will

By: Emily Phillips

The Lady Warriors had a successful season, placing fourteenth at Semi-State. As a whole, the team developed with the components of heart, courage, and will, and they gained pride and dedication within. In the majority of the meets this year, the Warriors tended to come out on top. The ladies defeated Center Grove and Greenfield two of three. If the team happened to be defeated, they would look for improvement and analyze their race to their advantage. Afterward, many of the ladies conditioned for the track season ahead.

Thank you team...

"I would like to thank the Lady Warrior Cross Country team for an outstanding season. I have throughly enjoyed working with you these past few months. Your dedication to the team is greatly appreciated. Congratulations again for the outstanding performances at Regionals. Reneuber... if you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it."

Coach Hope Sanders

Lyndsey Bowen

Overwhelmed with relief, the teammates gather to reflect on their individual race. The cross country team finished the Terre Haute invitational 3rd of 5.

Joni Willan

Freshman Joanna Euliss led the Warrior pack to a well-deserved victory. The Lady Warriors proved that all their hard work paid off this season.

HIGH SPRITS KEEP THE WARRIORS GOING

By: Jennifer Lucas

The lady Warriors' volleyball team's season started out on the right track. Defeating the first four of five opponents, their hopes of a winning season were thought to be realistic. "I don't know what happened to us. We started out playing like we played last season, but we lost all of our momentum," said Joni Willan, one of the two remaining seniors on the varsity team.

After losing nine of their next 14 games, including long time rival Scecina, confidence became an obstacle in the ladies' minds. The team as a whole could not tell what hapened to their mental strength. Kimmmy Adamson stated, "I don't know what we are doing. We practice like we are a winning group, but as soon as we get out on the floor with opponents we seem to freeze up."

Going into sectionals, the ladies self-esteem was raised, winning three of their last five games, but the sectional game against Lawrence Central ended our Warrior's season 1 - 2. This game was a victory in their minds though. They played with all of their hearts.

Thank you team...

"For your effort this year. I think everyone improved tremendously. Keep working hard and next year will be bigger and better."

Different STYLES OF play LEAD TO A WINNING SEASON RECORD

By: Jason Patel

This year was significantly different in comparison to previous years for the boys soccer team. The Warriors brought a new style of play with a total offense strategy, and this new playing style showed in their 12-7-0 record. They made it to the semifinals of county, but lost to number two ranked North Central. Three of the starters were seniors: Jason Patel, David Penalva, and Josh Harrell. The rest of the starters consisted of five juniors and three sophomores. The team was led by captain David Penalva and leading goal scorer Andy Penalva. Penalva made the All-County team and his brother David, Josh Harrell, and junior Kareem Lee recieved honorable mention.

Thank you team...

"I appreciate athletes who bought into what we as coaches are trying to teach. Our successful transition to the new system of play that we implemented in 2000 was due to a lot of hard work and determination by the players. Thanks to all of those who worked so hard to make it work."

Season FOR Growth

Individuals set their goals to succeed

By: Angie Moon

The girl's soccer season did not end as well as expected, but individuals set goals to their advantage. Nikki Bowersocks led the season off with a win at Southport. During the Lawrence North game junior Dee Malone made an amazing 22 saves. Valerie Elliot scored two goals in the game against Greenfield ensuring the Lady Warriors defeat against their opponent, with a score of one to zero. The girls worked hard during the season and got through it to show how with positive attitudes anything can be overcome.

Thank you team...

"I really appreciate all of the girls who came to practice every day and did all that you could to get better. When a team loses as many games as we did it can be hard for a player to give her best. Thanks to all of you who gave all you had every time you went onto the field."

Mind OVER Power

Balancing strategy and strength

By: Emily Phillips

With perpetual training and challenging practices, each tennis player developed his own technique or strategy. Strength is only a portion of the team's content, by displaying mind over matter in each match and striving to meet their goals, the team dominated opponents. The Warriors had a season of ups and downs. In Sectionals, the guys blew away Arlington 5-0; however, after putting up a tough fight the team was defeated by Lawrence North 2-3. Overall, the Warriors had an astounding season and are looking forward to the next.

Never SLOWING Down

Lady Warriors pull through with team work

By: Angie Moon

The Lady Warriors went out on the green to accomplish one goal each time, which was to simply have fun. Although the girls played with such a small team they became very close in knowing each others every move and truly playing as a team. As for the varsity ranking results, Marie Hertel and Megan Hunter tied for first place while Jessina Lascola, Natalie Walford, and Carla Mascari followed not far behind them. The girl's team worked hard during the season and accomplished many individual goals, and that was what set them apart from all the other teams.

Thank you team...

We've Got Spirit
We can't hide our warrior pride

By: Jennifer Lucas

The lady Warriors' cheerleading teams, like many other sports' teams, had various obstacles and challenges through the football and basketball seasons to overcome. The varsity cheerleaders began their season with only four returning members: two seniors and two juniors. Their competition season did not go as well as planned, but progress and improvement was shown throughout the seasons, proving this was a year of building. Though the J.V. and freshman teams were not always in the spotlight, the Warren cheerleaders worked their way to the top. Their dedication payed off in competition for both squads. J.V. placed third at both Marion County Fair and Regional competitions, while the freshman team placed first at the state competition for the first time in many

Starting OFF Strong

To develop a winning season

By: Jennifer Lucas

The Warriors basketball team started their season like many teams and coaches would dream of: a record of 8-0 and a rank as high as second in state. The team clicked from the start with an unstoppable offense and a great defense, dominating all opponents who crossed their path.

However, obstacles were thrown in the way of the Warriors mid-season when starting forward, Aaron Patterson, became ineligible to play, and Robert Boykins and Chad Tudor suffered injuries. The effect on the team meant losing five of their next seven games.

Realizing they would have to win with the team they had left, they began to practice harder. The boys ended the regular season winning their last five games, which brought their confidence back for the sectional game against Arlington. Warren met with victory against the Golden Knights, but Lawrence North took home the second round victory to end the season.

Thank you team...

Keeping THE Faith

With Hard work and dedication

By: Angie Moon

The girls basketball team played with a lot of heart during the season in hopes of dominating each opponent they met on the courts. Although they were defeated at many of their games, their dedication as a team never faltered. Working together and playing as a team made each player stronger as individuals. The girls learned that although finding success in each endeavor may be difficult, their efforts will pay off in the end if they work hard. This season can be remembered as a season in which the girls played with as much heart as possible.

Thank you team...

Quest for the Gold

Bringing a State Champion to Warren

By: Jason Patel

The 2000-2001 season proved to be the ultimate as they crowned their first State Champion since 1989. Number one ranked Danny Williams was fantastic on his route to the championship. He won state at 135 pounds. Along with Williams, senior Jason McClain placed sixth and junior Russell Smiley placed eighth at the State Tournament. Teamwork, dedication, and leadership from the seniors made the season a success. Placing second at the Merriville Invite and third at the Marion County Tournament were just a few of the many accomplishments that made this year unforgettable for the Warriors.

Thank you team...

"The 2000-2001 wrestling season was undoubtedly my most enjoyable ever. I felt that it would be extremely tough to top last season's accomplishments. It proved to be the ultimate as we crowned our first State Champion since 1989. This past season has also been rewarding for me as a coach because of the fine group of young men that I had to work with."

Teamwork SHINES Through

Pulling the team together

By: Angie Moon

The season for the gymnastics team proved to be a win over many of their competitors. They came together as a team and showed their rivals how teamwork and hard work can go a long way. Many of the girls set personal goals beating their previous records, leaving them with a feeling of fulfillment. Their win against Center Grove showed the team how practice and patience got them ahead. Perhaps it was their countless hours on the mats or bars, but something along the way helped them to shine.

Full STRIDE Ahead

The Boys Swim Team Never Turned Back

By: Emily Phillips

The boys swim team vastly improved this season. All of the boys sacrificed their time and worked hard throughout the season. For example, three swimmers improved and swam the 100 freestyle in under a minute. Time and commitment were priorities to becoming successful, along with self-discipline. Leading the lane, Chas Grimm finished in the top eight at county, and Tyler Neal placed third in diving at county. Neal was the only swimmer that advanced to regionals and placed 12th in diving. By pushing the boys to become the best that they could be and helping them to keep a positive frame of mind, Coach Julian was a big help to the swim team. Overall, everyone on the boys swim team dropped a minute off of their individual times.

Thank you team...

"Thanks so much for your hard work, dedication, and perseverance this season. I am proud of all of you for everything you have accomplished this year. I'm looking forward to an even better season next year. Swim hard this summer, and I'll see you in the fall."

Working AS A TeaM

TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS FOR THE FUTURE

By: Jennifer Lucas

" I know we did not have a great record this season, but we showed more dedication, working hard both during practice and meets," stated second year swimmer, Rebecca Norsen.

The ladies swim team came out this year knowing they were a young team and were ready to concentrate on re-building. This season the lady Warrior's swim team did not have as many victories as they would have hoped for, but they did succeed by showing improvement throughout the season. Their main focus was to improve individual times and get rid of weaknesses, which was accomplished. As the season wore on, the girl's spirits stayed strong, knowing that they were laying the foundation for future years.

Thank you team...

THE BOWLERS RANKED NUMBER ONE

By: Emily Phillips

Can you picture a basketball or football game without any spectators? That is what the bowling team faced on a daily basis. They were just as good as any of the other major sporting teams here at Warren, and yet they lacked the credit that they deserved. The boys and girls practiced twice a week and put in extra time if the meets were on weekends. The bowling team gave added attention to Warren for the past couple of years as the members proved themselves to be dedicated athletes. The girl's and boy's teams were ranked in state and were looked upon as being number one. For example, both teams won sectionals, with the help of their leading bowlers, Tabitha Gresham with an average of 180, and Dylan Murphy lead the boys team with an average of 205. Both teams gave their all at the state championship. Setting a personal record, Dylan Murphy took the state title and joined the Warrior Hall of Fame.

Thank you team...

Proving TO Opponents

The accomplishments are never ending

By. Jennifer Lucas

Many highlights and accomplishments were produced by the boys track team throughout the season.

The warriors proved to their opponents early in the season that they had a large amount of poise for a winning season. The team defended their title at the Richmond Invitational, with every man on the team scoring points for the warriors. They also participated in the Southport Relays for the first time and went away as team champions.

A handful of guys also completed the season becoming "School Record Holders." Royce Owens set the record in shot put throwing 58'00". The 4x800m relay team broke their record of 8:00.02 at the Marion County Championship. Their team consisted of seniors Marcus Ikeda, Mark Hudgins, Richard Reeves and Jason Smith.

Thank you team...

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every track man for a great season... To you... we all hope that you will be...a better human being because you were a WARREN TRACK MAN. We always say to you go, but never leave because a big part of you will always be right here."

Coach Dennis McNulty

Lyndsey Bowen

Senior Deshawn Echols clears his final hurdle in stride during the Warren Relays. The warriors placed first at the only home meet for the season shutting out Ben Davis, Southport, Brebeuf, Richmond, East Central, Connersville and Broad Ripple.

Lyndsey Bowen

Senior Shelton Parrish proves that the famous Fosbury technique is anything but a flop. Parrish was the second highest jumper for the season with a high jump of 6'00.

Lyndsey Bowen

Steady teamwork and sure hands enable Derrell Echols and Dennis Mitchell to keep pace during the Sprint Medley, which is a race presented at the Warren Relays. The team consisting of Echols, Mitchell, Abdul Toure and Orlando Collins placed second in the event.

Setting THE Record

The Girls reach an all time high

By: Sports Staff

The girls' track season was filled with victories this year as they won the County meet for the first time in Warren Central history. The lady warriors also brought home a win at the Warren Relays against seven tough competitors. Bringing home a sectional title to Warren was also another major goal met by the girls. However, these accomplisments didn't come easy for the lady warriors. They had to give 100 percent of their efforts in practice, knowing they would need it for every meet and competition. With several underclassmen stepping up to pull the team ahead, the warriors are hopeful for next season.

Thank you team...

"Congratulations on a great season! Everyone did an excellent job stepping up to the challenge. Thank you for showing a lot of confidence and a lot of class!"

Coach Hope Sanders

Winning WITH Triumph

TAKING BASEBALL TO A NEW LEVEL

By: Angie Moon

The baseball team started off in a slump this year, but they pulled through victoriously. Their teamwork and dedication throughout the season proved to be a success. The team seemed to be able to step up at the most challenging times. Senior Matt East pitched over half of the games during this season earning the warriors numerous wins. The coaches were proud to bring them into the Varsity County Championship game at Victory Field. They put up a tough match against Lawrence Central with a final score of 0-1. Many of the warriors will remember this year as proof of the great outcomes from hard work and perseverence.

Thank you team...

Coach Rich Dayment

"The coaching staff of the 2001 baseball warriors would like to congratulate players on all three teams for an exciting season. The Varsity County Championship game at Victory Field was a highlight that made the entire warren family proud. Keep working hard and great things will happen."

Sara Bales

Senior Matt East finishes his pitch with a perfect follow through during the warriors' game against New Palestine. East was the number one pitcher on the team during the 2001 season.

Sara Bales

Senior Jason McClain throws the ball back to the pitcher during warm-ups before their game against Southport. The warriors beat their rivals in a final score of 13-3 runs.

Brandy Campbell

As the varsity baseball team walks off the field from their warm-ups, their hopes are high with anticpation for the game. The boys held onto a winning game to beat Carmel, previously ranked number three.

Proves they are not just another girl team

By: Jennifer Lucas

With hard work and dedication, the warrior's softball team ended their regular season accomplishing the main goal they set out for themselves this year: to win the county championship. Being a young group with few returning varsity members, the main focus for the year was teamwork. Captains Nicole Clampitt and Kimmy Adamson showed the strong leadership skills needed to help create a winning team. Though the girls had a terrific season, the lack of fan support from classmates and staff disturbed many players. Their county games were not held at Victory Field , but they did go to the Championship game and won.

Thank you team...

"Our season went really well thanks to each member of our team. Well all got along and ended our season winning the County Championship. We will miss our senior's talent and friendship."

Member Megan Wolford

Lyndsey Bowen

Determined to keep her opponent off base, junior Amy Richards extends her body out as far as she is capable. Though she did not succeed in the out at first base, the warriors stopped Brebeuf from the run with a winning score of 9 -2.

Guarding the line, junior Megan Wolford waits for a line drive to third base. Wolford was a key component for the team, playing third along with left and center field through the season.

Hard work pays off with a successful season

By: Jason Patel

The boys golf team had a fantastic season this year. With a third place ranking in state, the boys separated themselves from the rest of the teams. They placed in the top five of every invitational they participated in, and individual accomplishments were numerous. Justin Wenger placed first in the Marion County Tournament, with the team coming in not far behind with third. Along with Wenger, Joe Johnston won the Bishop Chatard Invitational. With all of the teams' accomplishments the warriors proved themselves worthy of their rank, leaving high expectations for next year's WC golfers.

Thank you team...

"I would like to thank the 2001 boys golf team for all their time, effort, and cooperation. They have made this season successful and memorable, for that alone I cannot thank them enough. It was a true privilege to coach all of the WC golfers, and I wish them the best of luck in the future."

Coach Al Darko

Placement VS. Power

THE GIRLS TENNIS TEAM BALANCED BOTH

By: Emily Phillips

The girls tennis team had a productive year. One of their major accomplishments was defeating Ben Davis, which had not been done for over 11 years. With this victory came commitment and dedication. The team practiced every day after school to prepare for future matches. Even though tennis tends to be an individual sport, the outcome depends on the team as a whole, so everyone supported each other. The hard work paid off in the first round of sectionals when the girls slaughtered Scecina 5-0. After putting up a tough fight to Lawrence North, the team lost 1-4 to finish off their season.

Thank you team...

"I am impressed with your dedication to conditioning. It was demanding, but you stuck with it. Winners find a way, losers find a way out. You are winners!"

Coach Gretchen Brooks

Sara Bales

Senior Katie Winings mentally prepares herself before the next point. Emily Groll and Winings were successful this year at playing number one doubles.

Sara Bales

In between points, senior Marie Hertel and her Greenfield opponent tally up the match score. Warren blew Greenfield away with a score of 5-0.

A chance to stay involved in school while exploring outside interests, clubs were also a great place to discover your hidden talents. Many people never knew just how good they were at something until they gave it a try. Student Council, National Honor Society, foreign language clubs, and class councils combined community service with fun, while competitive clubs like Speech Team or Brain Game promoted teamwork. No matter if we were playing our hearts out in the Gold Brigade band or putting together a newspaper or yearbook, it was students working together that helped us reach our goals.

FCA

Name: Crissey Oliver
Grade: 12
Why did you choose this club?
I chose it because I wanted to be in a club that would allow me to meet other Christians in school.
What would you tell someone who was considering joining?
FCA is a great way to meet new friends and grow as a Christian. It's a lot easier to stand for what you believe in when you know you're not standing alone. You also could meet your new best friend.
How often do you all meet?
We meet every Friday and during activity period.

Adventure Club

I've learned how to relax and have fun.

JUST SAY NO

Name: Jazmine Barham
Grade: 10
How long have you been in this club?
I haven't been in this club very long, but everyone is so nice which makes it feel like I've been in this club forever.
What do you do in this club?
In this club we encourage students not to do drugs. We feel just because everyone else is doing it doesn't mean you have to.
What have you learned from this club?
I've learned [respect] because we all can joke around and have a good time and still have respect for each other.

Row 1: Elizabeth Whitman, Melody Lunney, Sara Boutwell, Andre Wilson Row 2: Eric Raney, Mr. Gillmore, Michelle Gillmore

EARTH TEAM

Name: Tyanne Martin
Grade: 12
Why did you choose this club?
I originally joined because I had a cool advanced biology teacher. He was the sponsor, and he convinced me to stay after for the club.
What is something you have learned through this club that applies to your everyday life?
I find myself being more aware of surroundings; rather than just walking through some trees, I stop to notice what creatures have been by and what marks they have made.

Row 1: Leah Richards, Amanda Snider Row 2: Michelle Jones, John Durham, Tyanne Martin, Mr. Hall

Spotlight

Name: Ryan Taylor
Grade: 12
Why did you choose this club?
I am looking at athletic training as a leading career choice.
What exactly do you do in this club?
(In this club) we practice taping. We meet once a month. (The outside activities that this club is involved in are that) some of the student trainers are involved in the sports at school.
What is something that you have learned that applies to your daily life?
(Something I've learned in this club that applies in my daily life is that) we learn about nutrition and proper ways of exercising. So I take this into my daily diet and my weights class.
What is your most memorable moment with the group?
(My most memorable moment was) seeing Mike Watson getting stitched up during a football game.
What would you tell someone who was considering joining your club?
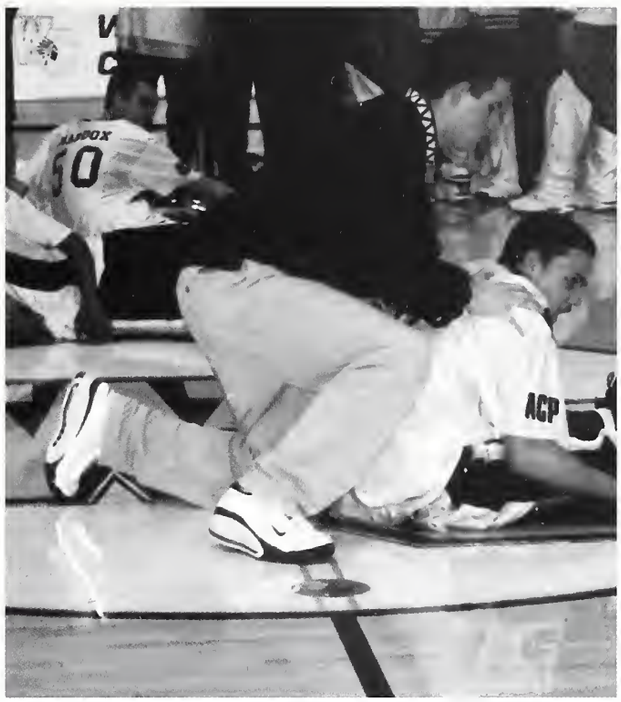
If you are interested in sports and working and helping athletes, it is a great club.



Senior Rob Thomas assists fellow senior Terren Wilson in stretching before a game against New Pal. Making sure the athletes' muscles were warmed up and lose was important to avoid injury.

facts

RT SOPHOMORES

Name: Stephanie Shepler
Grade: 10
What outside activities is this club involved in?
We do performances, and we help charity organizations. We also read children's books and record them for the hearing impaired.
What is your most memorable moment with the group?
It was the Christmas show when we performed at many elementary schools. The children were all laughing, smiling, and asking for autographs. It made all the hard work and effort worth while.

Mrs. Bravard Says:

"The most important aspect of Readers' Theatre for me is the way I see my students grow and change. Many of my students literally shake when they get up in front of a class of 30 students in August. By December, they are performing in front of 1,000 people in the PAC, and they are performing with amazing confidence!"

"Almost every student who has come through this calss has told me that they have much more self-assurance after taking this course. I truly believe that if you can give a person more confidence in him/herself, that person has a much better chance to succeed in life. I want my students to leave this class believing that they can do anything that they put their minds to, because they can!

I am their biggest fan!"

Tyanne Martin and Megan Huntsman sing in a duo during the Christmas concert. Readers' Theatre performed for a record audience this year.

facts

- Reader's Theatre performed for over 20,000 people this school year
- Reader's Theatre performed in every elementary school in Warren Township
- Members write 98% of their materials
- Students learned to share and compromise
- Students learned that they are an important part of a team effort
- They found that they can learn a lot and still have fun

Students perform as a singing Christmas tree during their show. The show was performed for family, friends, and local scout troops.

DRAMA

Name: Holly Reinhardt
Grade: 12
Why did you choose this club?
I became very involved with the theatre program around my sophomore year, and I wanted to get even more involved, so I started going to meetings.
What is something that you've learned through this club that applies to your everyday life?
Well, I'm going to be majoring in theatre and drama in college, so it helps me edify my theatre skills and experience, but also, theatre, in general, teaches and conveys great ideas and universal truths.
What is your most memorable moment with the group?
Well, it would have to be at the end of each meeting when we do improvisational theatre games; everyone loves that part.

SPEECH

Name: Meredith Morris
Grade: 10
Why did you choose this club?
I fell into speech team on accident, and when I realized it was mostly about drama, I joined.
How long have you been in this club?
This is my first year on the speech team.
What exactly do you do?
I compete in a memorized duo with my fellow teammate Jonathon Murdock.
What is your most memorable moment with the group?
My most memorable speech team moment is a little odd and gross, but at our Christmas party I stuck a candy cane up Jon Schwarz's nose. It bled for a good half an hour. Thus, our new motto: "It's all fun and games until someone gets a candy cane up their nose!"

SYMPHONIC ORCHESTRA

Name: Samantha Griffin
Grade: 11
Why did you choose this club?
I chose to be in symphony orchestra because it is a lot of fun. The music is challenging and it requires a lot of work but the rewards are wonderful.
How long have you been in this club?
I have been in orchestra for three years so far.
What is something you've learned through this club that applies to your everyday life?
I have learned a lot about commitment from being in orchestra. You have to give a lot of time and effort and stick with it no matter what. One of our major goals is to make it to state and that is what we work hard for.

GOLD BRIGADE

Name: Hope VanTreese
Grade: 12

What is something you have learned that applies to everyday life?
I've learned that every person counts in music and in life. I've learned that working together to reach a common goal is a spectacular feeling.

What is your most memorable moment with the group?
When they announced that our band made state finals, everyone was screaming and crying and laughing all at the same time. It was amazing.

Why did you choose this club?
I chose to be in the Gold Brigade marching band, originally, because I love music and wanted to be involved.

Spotlight

Name: Allison Jones
Grade: 12
Years involved: 4

I chose color guard because it looked interesting. I'm not big on other athletics and I like performing. I have been involved in color guard and winterguard for four years. In color guard, we go to competitions and compete against other guards. Each guard has their own show and is judged. We meet three days a week for practice and tenth period everyday. You learn a lot of discipline through color guard. Also, it is a team sport, so everyone must work together. My most memorable moment was last year when we went to state and earned the highest placing for any first time (in state) guard. For anyone that is considering color guard, you have to be willing to sweat! A big portion of your free time will be taken away, so you have to want to do it.

Members of the guard line up for their part of the formation in the routine. The guard's practices really payed off when they placed second in state.

facts

- There were 29 people in the colorguard and winterguard.
- This year, they practiced over 150 hours and about 20 hours weekly
- The colorguard practiced 9 hours a week, three days a week.
- They placed first at the Owen Valley and Chesterton competitions.
- Cost of an average outfit was around 20 to 30 dollars.
- The first colorguard at Warren was started in 1997.
- Winterguard is a smaller, elite group of the colorguard.
- Jeff Wrobleski was the choreographer, who picked the music and supervises the show

When we walked into the building on the first day of school, the first things we all noticed were the many, many faces. We saw our old friends, favorite teachers, and unknown people who may someday become our friends, acquaintances, teachers, or mentors. But nobody could tell much just by looking at faces. Behind each one existed a complex personality that the exterior only hinted at - likes, dislikes, beliefs, values, and dreams that may or may not have coincided with your own. Yet everyone was important in his or her small way, and we were all influenced by the many individuals that made up the whole.

Quincy Dunn

-What are your hopes for society?
(I hope) for everyone to be happy.
-What is your greatest piece of advice?
Try hard in school and you will get somewhere.
-What will the world know you for?
(It will know me) for the great things I have done, and the way I act.
-What do you want to be remembered as?
(I want to be remembered) as a very nice person.
-What is one thing you know for sure?
(I know) that I am going to finish school.
-What are you grateful for?
I am grateful to be in this world.

-What are your hopes for society?
(My hope is) for people not to judge other people by the way they look or their religion.
-What has been the biggest political event of your generation?
This year's 2000 presidential campaign.
-What is one thing you would put inside of a time capsule to represent your generation?
(I would put) something to represent music.
-What is one prediction you have for the future?
Everything will be linked to a computer.
-What is one thing you know for sure?
I need to do what is right.

ERIKA YATEMAN

•What are your hopes for society?

(I hope) that finally, I will be judged by my character and not color

•What has been the biggest cultural event of your generation?

The Million Man March has been the biggest event.

•What is your greatest piece of advice?

Don't change yourself to fit someone else's personality; to thy own self be true.

•What are you grateful for?

(I am grateful for) my family, friends life and faith.

•How do you want to be remembered?

I want to be remembered as someone who was a friend, creative, talented and loving

•What will be the greatest invention of the 21st century?

The greatest invention of the 21st century will be genetic engineering. It will help us overcome sickness, diseases and other things that affect the human body.

•What has been the biggest cultural event of your generation?

The internet has been the biggest cultural event in my generation. It has completely changed the way we live. We are able to talk to people millions of miles away and instead of taking hours at the library to research we have all we need at the click of a button.

•What is one thing you know for sure?

I know for sure that if I don't take care of my responsibilities in life I won't get where I want to be.

Members of the cast Sugar perform "Hey Why Not." The fall musical was almost cancelled because the drama department did not have a technical director.

Members of the boy's and girl's cross country team wash cars to raise money for the team. The cross country teams also sponsor the pancake breakfast fund-raiser.

Class act members gather on a Saturday for a tea party. This was their second year as a club at Warren Central.

Carla Mascari helps Nicole Musser on a work sheet in great books. Great books can be used as a senior English credit instead of the regular English course.

Sarah Marion

•What will be the greatest invention of the 21st century?
(The greatest invention will be) a robot that can do house duties for everyone or homework!

•What has been the biggest political event of your generation?
The recount of the votes between Gore and Bush (has been the biggest political event.)

•What is one thing you would put inside of a time capsule for your generation?
I would put a fashion magazine, newspaper, and a yearbook to show how we lived.

•What is one thing you know for sure?
Life is too short to waste, so when you have a chance to have fun--go for it.

•What is the best invention so far?
The best invention so far is the microwave, but in my time, I would say car stereo systems and TV's.

•What will be the greatest invention of the 21st century?
I think it will be a hand-held TV, cell phone, pager, and CD player all in one--the size of a watch.

•What has been the biggest political event of your generation?
The biggest political event of my generation is Bill Clinton almost being impeached.

•What has been the biggest cultural event of your generation?
The biggest cultural event of my generation is when rap and rock came together.

Michael Ford

•What are your hopes for society?

We will grow and mature at a very prosperous rate.

•What has been the biggest cultural event of your generation?

(The) formation and understanding of different ethnic groups (has been the biggest cultural event.)

•Who or what is your biggest influence or hero?

Lance Armstrong–he overcame cancer and won the Tour de France.

•How do you want to be remembered?

I want to be remembered as someone who was helpful, honest, and outgoing.

•What is one thing you know for sure?

You will always improve if you stick with it.

•What will be the greatest invention of the 21st century?

I'm not sure. Hopefully it will be something to cure a disease such as cancer, AIDS, or some other incurable disease.

•What has been the biggest political event of your generation?

The situation between Bill Clinton and Monica Lewinsky was the most interesting political event of my generation; however, the election of 2000 was the biggest.

•What is one thing you know for sure?

Life changes everyday, no one stays the same, family won't be there for you and make sure you're strong enough to handle life on your own.

BRANDON COLE

-What are your hopes for society?

My hope for society is to be able to care for one another and help each other. We all don't do it enough anymore.

-What is one prediction you have for the future?

That too much of the world will run out of oil and people will become homeless.

-Who is your biggest influence?

I would have to say that God is because He has given this earth. He knows what we do and at the same time he is always there to help us.

-What is your greatest piece of advice?

Don't be a punk. Keep your head up and you will live longer and happier.

-What is the best invention so far?

Electricity is the best invention.

-What is one prediction you have for the future?

One precaution I'm sure some will take, but one I'll say everyone should take is

-Who is your biggest influence or hero?

My biggest influence is my friend Doyle Cook. She has always set a good example for me to look up to as well as everyone around her.

JOE AKERS

-What is the best invention so far?

I think that the best invention is the toilet. Imagine what it would be like without them.

-Who is your biggest influence or hero?

My big brother. He is very successful. I would like to be like him when I'm older.

-What is your greatest piece of advice?

Don't get lost in or worried about the past; think about the future.

-How do you want to be remembered?

(I want to be remembered as) the funny little red head.

-What is the best invention so far?

I believe the best invention so far would have to be the internet because that's where you can find most of your information.

-What are your hopes for society?

(I hope) for everyone to come together and be united as one.

-Who is your biggest influence or hero?

My biggest influence would have to be my mother; she has struggled the majority of her life for my brother and me.

-What is your greatest piece of advice?

My greatest advice would have to be that if something didn't happen to you, it must be for a reason.

CRYSTAL HALL

•What is one thing you would put inside of a time capsule for your generation?

A tape of One Saturday Morning.

•Who is your biggest influence of hero?

Johnny Knoxville (is my biggest influence or hero)

•What is your greatest piece of advice?

Never milk a cow with cold hands.

•What is one thing you know for sure?

Nothing is certain.

•What are you grateful for?

(I am grateful for) Robin Williams

•What has been the biggest cultural event of your generation?

Even though I were young I would have to say the Berling Wall being took down. This showed that two different sides can reach an agreement and follow through with it

•What is one prediction you have for the future?

In the future I think that the world will be even more connected than we are now. I also think that it will be where we can fly around the world in one hour.

•What are you grateful for?

I am grateful that I am allowed to pursue my interests in an environment that does not restrict me from teaching myself new things outside of school.

Melanie Jarvis

-What is the best invention so far?

The best invention so far is the Internet. Anything and everything you are looking for is there. It's the world at your fingertips.

-What are your hopes for society?

I hope we can be a more truthful and caring society that realizes the pain and suffering of other countries and societies.

-What is your greatest piece of advice?

Live life to the fullest. Take advantage of good opportunities because you never know when your life will end.

-How do you want to be remembered?

I want to be remembered as being a kind and thoughtful person and an enigma to my parents.

-What is the best invention so far?

The best invention so far is electricity.

-What are your hopes for society?

My hopes for society are world peace, end hunger, and cures for diseases.

-What is the biggest political event of you generation?

The biggest political event of my generation have been the election for the presidency and the U.S.S. Cole.

-Who has been your biggest influence?

The people who probably have the biggest influence in my life are my family.

-What are you grateful for?

I am grateful for having a family and a place in this world.

STEPHEN COURTNEY

-What is the best invention so far?

The DVD player is the best invention so far because it ties in with computers and technology.

-What has been the biggest political event of your generation?

(The biggest political even has been) Bush and Gore arguing over the votes in Florida.

-What are your hopes for society?

My hopes for society would be to get violence off the streets all around the world.

-What is one prediction you have for the future?

We will have flying cars.

-What is your greatest piece of advice?

Follow your mind and heart.

-What is the best invention so far?

The best invention so far has been the radio. I can't go a single day without listening to it.

-What is one thing you would put inside a time capsule for your generation?

The one thing I would put in a time capsule would be a magazine. Magazines show style of clothes, popular music, and popular entertainment.

-What or who is your biggest influence?

The biggest influence on me would have to be everyone. I take in everything I see and everyone I see.

-What are you grateful for?

I am grateful for the fact that I am alive, and I live in a country of freedom, choice and second chances.

rashad howard 2001

Rashad,
We are extremely excited that you have successfully completed high school. Your decision to continue on and major in education makes us extremely proud of you. Rashad, your dedication, hard work, integrity, thoughtfulness, and intelligence will take you far.

Keep your head to the sky son!
Love Mom and Dad

christopher hoff 2001

Christopher,
Congratulations son! As your mother I am very proud of you and your accomplishments. As you continue into a world full of possibilities know that you take all of my love and affection. Enjoy life's journey, and live your dreams to the fullest!
Love Mom

andrea blackburn 2001

Andrea,
All too quickly the time has passed. Who knew all those years ago our baby sister would walk in both our shoes, take the best from both of us, and carry us in her heart to follow her own dream? Who knew the joy you would bring into our lives? We started off as four, and our family grew, but no matter where our journey takes us, in our hearts, it will always be us four.
Love Mom, Dawn, and Shanna

athena chocklett

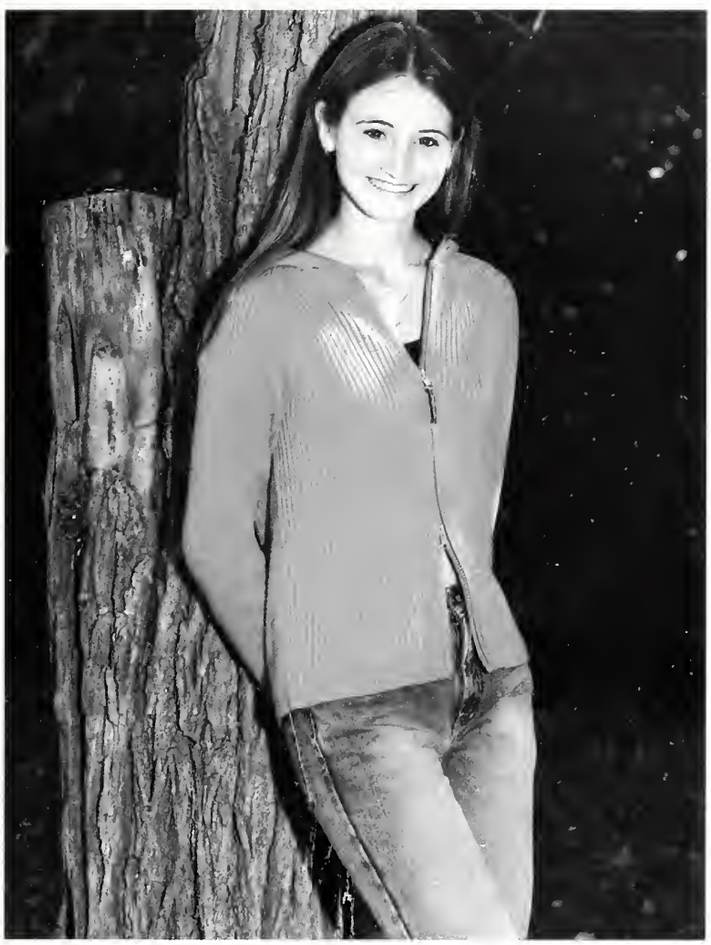
2001



To our star baby:
We knew from the moment we saw you, you were a gift from God. God blessed us. We are so proud of all you have accomplished. We love you, and we will always be there for you. Go to Purdue knowing that you have worked hard to get there. Believe in yourself, stay focused, and your dreams will come true.
We love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Joshua

I have been around since your sophomore year, only because you couldn't get rid of me. I loved it when you would stop me and make me listen to your everyday struggles. Thank you for letting me help you out. It has probably helped me out more than you.
Love you always,
Joey XOXO

Athena - Congratulations!! There are no words to explain how proud we are of you. Grandchildren are the most precious gifts of all, and we are blessed to have you as one of ours. We wish you all the joy, happiness, and success as you move toward the world of adulthood.
With all our love,
Grandma and Grandpa Chocklett

holly reinhardt 2001

Of all the characters you've played - Murphy, Chex, Laurie, Summer, the passenger, Mina, Jane, Audrey, Emily, Cynthia, a drama student, Delores, Maggie, Kathleen,... we love Holly the most!
Dream away!
We love you,
Dad, Mom, Kristy, Sandy, Max, Shadow, and Tiger

kenny olson 2001

Son, throughout your life there have been numerous times that we have been proud of you. The best way to predict your future is to create it. As you move forward, always remember we're behind you in whatever you do or dream.
Love Ya, Mom and Dad

lacey moyer 2001

Lacey Michelle,

God truly smiled upon us when He brought you into our lives. The joy and pride we feel for you are immeasurable, and we just know you're going to do great things with your life. Remember -wherever you go, whatever you do, we'll always be just a phonecall away. Graduation congratulations! We all love you so very, very much!!

aaron stevens

Dear Aaron,

We wanted you to know that you were exactly the son that we prayed for. We can never thank you enough for the joy that you have brought to our lives. Your good-natured ways, your love of baseball, fishing trips, crawling through caves, the founding of Tigger, and so many other joyful memories fill our hearts and minds during this very special time of your life. We are so very proud of you.

Love,
Dad and Mom

adam stanford

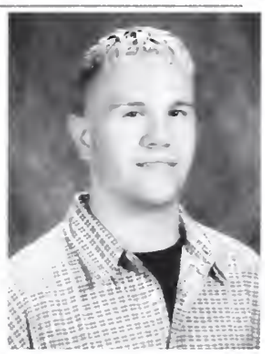
2001



Adam,

Congratulations on your graduation from high school. Now don't give up your dreams and keep reaching for the stars. Also just remember the one word you don't like to hear from me, "priority." Everything else will be just fine. Best of luck.

Love your Dad

cheryl jones — 2001

What a joy it's been to watch you grow up from a sweet baby to a beautiful, talented young lady! We are so proud of your perseverance, dedication, and accomplishments as you begin the next great adventure of your life. Remember how very much we love you and that you'll always be our Cher Bear!

tiffany smith — 2001

To My daughter:
I knew you were very special from the moment I held you. You've brought lots of love and laughter. I am so very proud of your achievements during your school years. You've made me so proud of you. I want to wish you all the happiness and love in all you accomplish.
Love,
Mom

carla mascari — 2001

Carla,

How beautiful to have watched you grow from a tiny little girl into a young woman making your own choices and decisions. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. Always remember you're already a success because of all your qualities and who you are. We love you Pooh and are always here for you. Good luck at Marian.

Love,
Mom & Dad

missy lanum

2001

Congratulations! Missy, the brat, you are the pride of the Lanum family to this day and have been all your life. I'm sure your grandmother and grandfather are the proudest grandparents in heaven, but don't let it go to your head. It may not seem like it, but you have a long way to go baby. It seems like yesterday you were hanging out in the garage with dad and the boys- (but you always have liked the boys, ha, ha!!) best little tool hander I ever had. Don't think I have ever been disappointed in you because I never have been, and I will always push you to do the best you can, as I have myself. You have a long life to live, and whatever you want can be yours if you want it bad enough. So go out there and live life to the fullest, like your daddy has.

I love you,

Dad

Heather Renee

Congratulations daughter! I'm sure you must know how proud I am of you. All of your accomplishments, just not in school but in all that you have done. I know you will be successful in life in whatever you choose. May God's love be shown to you and his blessings fill your life.

Love Always,

Mom

Delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Josh,
YOU MADE IT!! Congratulations!! It is hard to believe that the little boy who was so excited about being named to play "electricity man" in baseball has grown into such a remarkable young man. We are so proud of all your accomplishments. Your sense of humor and your easygoing style will open many doors for you in the future. Seize each opportunity with the enthusiasm you do now and you will go far in life.
We love you,

Angie,
It seems like yesterday when you were born; your beautiful little face looked like an angel, and you were named Angela. You soon became a little girl who enjoyed playing with Barbies, going to Chuckie Cheese's, and having sleepovers. In a blink of an eye you were all grown up into a beautiful young lady. We are so proud of the person you have become. We wish you the best in college and will miss you every minute you are away.
Love,

It has been a true pleasure watching you grow. Thank you for sharing your soccer games, school trips, Florida trips, campfires, stage jitters, choir contests, slumber parties with Grassy Creek monsters, your beautiful voice, your friends, and so much more these past 18 years.
We wish you courage and happiness as you follow your dreams. The world awaits you. We are so proud of you. We believe in you. We love you.
Mom and Dad

diane hoggatt 2001

Diane,
We just want you to know how much we love you and how very, very proud we are of you. You have become quite a young lady. You have accomplished more already than some people do in a life time. Good luck next year and in years to come. Without a doubt, you can attain any dreams you have.
We love you!
Dad, Mom, Daniel, Dana, Grandma, Papa, and Grandpa

amanda ross 2001

Amanda,
We are so proud of your accomplishments and more importantly of the beautiful, compassionate, young woman you have become. Your easygoing spirit, warm smile, and gracious heart are qualities that have endeared so many people to you. As the page turns to the next chapter in your life, believe in yourself, be the person you need to be. Follow your dreams and your heart; they will guide you on your journey through life. Remember, we will always be here for you!
Our Love Always,
Mom, Dad, and Ashley

jennifer lucas 2001

As a child, we watched you grow,
Gave you nutrition and knowledge you know.
But we where young, and now we are learning to slow down.
Now you're the fast mover, running all over town.
You have made a big step graduating high school this year,
but it's just the beginning, trust us my dear.
Now a young lady, grown and of age,
I guess we will learn to let you have some of the stage.
Now set your sites on your dreams and career
because we are behind you 100%, my dear.
Congratulations!
We love you always,
Mom, Dad, and Jamie

Dear Student Council Members of the Class of 2001:

It's been a great year! Thanks for the memories! I have enjoyed working with you on all of the council activities, and I am proud to be an advisor of such a fine group of young people. You have shown me that you are hard-working, compassionate, and fun-loving. So many times you have put the needs of the school and community before your own needs, and I applaud you for that unselfish attitude.... It would be easy for you to sit back and rest on your laurels, but that's not what you're all about. You have never sought glory or recognition, just the satisfaction from doing a job, doing it well, and knowing that you have helped others.... Thank you, good luck, and may God bless you! Please stay in touch, and come back to visit!

Love,
Mrs. Wolff

Female veterans from Readers' Theatre perform a skit in the Christmas Program. Students that had taken Readers' Theatre for two or more years were allowed to participate in a special skit in the show.

The senior cheerleading squad for the senior/faculty basketball game assemble themselves into a pyramid. The faculty beat out the seniors with a three point win.

Staff:

A Note from Jordo:

As everything winds down to the last couple of pages, I'm realizing how much I'm going to miss staff. I'll miss the summer camps at IU and Ball State even though we never learned anything. I'll miss our fun times like Kansas City. (I think it's a safe bet that no other staff in America has staff shoes!) Of course there are things I won't miss like having to pick out fonts time after time! Although I didn't have class with each of you, I can say that with all of us working together, we've made a great book! Baldwin, I know we made you nervous and you didn't think we'd get everything in, but we did! We couldn't have done it with out your support. You've been the best for the past 4 years, and I'll miss you tripping and teasing me everyday. I've also got to thank you for getting Cici's for our overly vegetarian staff when we were starving. Haab, I have to thank you for fixing this contraption every time Tiffany and I decided to break it, not to mention blessing us with all of your technical knowledge. Tif, I have to thank you most of all. I couldn't imagine co-editing with another person; we make a great team (even if we are kind of cynical). I'll miss you terribly next year. Good luck and maybe we'll run into each other at a photo convention one day! Photogs, I know you guys had a lot of pressure on you all, but you came through for us eventually. You are all our backup dancers. You know this book wouldn't be anything without all of your help! Finally, I want to wish everyone much luck next year. To the eleven seniors, live your lives to the fullest and I'll see you all in 2021 at our 20 year reunion! To the remaining few Wigwam members...RECRUIT! and train those J-kids well.

Love to you all,
Jordan Smith

A Note from Tif:

I really don't know what to say; it seems as though Jordan has covered everything. Everyone on staff has pulled through and contributed so much to this book, and I thank everyone for their help. For the past four years I've come to this room and had more fun than in any other class, even through the stressful days when nothing seems to come together and everything goes wrong. I honestly think we have one of the best staffs; I couldn't imagine making this book without all of you. What would a day be like without Kara's constant burping, Lindsey's hilarious and interesting stories, Amanda's bickering with everyone, and all the other quirks our staff has. I owe a great deal of thanks to Baldwin and Haab. Thanks for fixing the computer and guiding us throughout the year. Most of all I thank Jordan. I couldn't have done this with out you. Our ideas and personalities mix well. It will be weird without you next year, and I'll miss you. I want to wish Amanda the best of luck next year, and I hope you and Jennifer will work as well as Jordan and I did. To all the seniors: Good luck in the future; hopefully I will see you all again.

Love ya,
Tif

A lasting impression

Everything that happened this year has shaped us, from the small happenings of the everyday to the unforgettable moments of the year. We have left our impressions in the history of Warren Central; our identity has been shaped by the lessons we have learned, the friends we have made, and the experiences we have had.

(Below) Seniors listen closely as fellow students and administrators speak on what was to be the last night as Warriors for the class of 2001. This end gave seniors a chance to reflect on who they had become as a result of Warren's influence.

(Bottom) Students say farewell as the school year ends. For many, summer provided the opportunity to shape their identities outside the halls of Warren Central.

800 copies of the 64th volume of the yearbook were printed by Herff Jones Yearbooks at the cost to students of $40 each. Mrs. Cathy Wolfe served as the Herff Jones representative, and Lori Daniels was the in-plant consultant. Mrs. Alison Baldwin was the yearbook advisor, Mr. Mark Haab was the Publications Director, and Mr. Tony Burchett was the principal. The book was printed on 100 lb. bordeaux paper. All photos were taken and developed in Warren Central's dark room by the staff photographers, or taken and developed by Prestige Portraits. All page layouts were created on Pagemaker 6.5 software.
